CONFIDENTIAL

25X1   3. [   ] Talked with Darrell St. Claire, Assistant Secretary of the Senate, and told him the former employee I had talked with him about on a hypothetical basis some time ago was [   ] 25X1   [   ] Administrative Assistant. I added that we had given the matter a lot of thought and decided [   ] should show his Agency employment 25X1
on official documents of the Senate but should not advertise it. St. Claire thanked me very much for closing the matter out with him and said again that the only call that would be needed would be a call from the office of the Financial Clerk to confirm the fact of his employment.

25X1   4. [   ] In response to his request of yesterday,
I delivered to Marian Czarnecki, Staff Consultant, House Foreign Affairs Committee, [   ]   25X1

25X1   5. [   ] Called Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, and told him that our office had no information 25X1 indicating that a member of his staff had called us expressing an interest in
25X1 [   ]
[   ] Sourwine said he was sure that he had made the call; however, it was possible that no return call from the Agency was necessary. He understood that we never had any involvement in [   ] I told him that as far as   25X1 25X1 we knew [   ] Sourwine appeared satisfied and said he would not pursue the matter any further.

25X1   6. [   ] Met with Mr. Shean, in the office of Representative Phillip Burton (D., Calif.), concerning the request for any unclassified material we might have on the Peoples' Republic of China. He said the request was for a constituent who is a close friend of Mr. Burton's who hopes to resume his business contacts in China.
I furnished him a copy of the reference aid publication listing Chinese Government Officials after clearing it with the DDI and Library of Congress and this satisfied his request.

25X1   7. [   ] Picked up from Jack Norpel, Senate
Internal Security Subcommittee staff, documents for forwarding to [   ]   25X1 25X1 [   ], Office of Security.
